PLAINTIFFS' REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS TO DEFENDANT COTTER CORPORATION

Plaintiffs Tamia Banks, Rev. Ronnie Hooks, Barbara Hooks, Joel Hogan, Kenneth Niebling, Kendall Lacy, Tanja Lacy, Willie Clay, Bobbie Jean Clay, Angela Statum, and Missouri Rentals Company, LLC, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, by and through their attorneys, and pursuant to Rule 58.01 of the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure, hereby propound the following Request for Production of Documents on Defendant, COTTER CORPORATION, to be answered within thirty (30) days after service thereof.

Instructions

1. Answer each production request separately and fully in writing and under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the reasons for such objection must be stated in lieu of an answer.

2. You are under a continuing duty to seasonably supplement your response with respect to any question when new or additional information becomes known. Additionally, you are under a continuing duty to seasonably amend a prior response if you obtain information upon the basis of which you know that the response was incorrect when made, or that the response, through correct when made, is no longer complete or correct.

3. All responsive information and documents in the possession of the party, the party's attorney, investigators, agents, employees or any other representatives of the named party and the party's attorney are to be produced.

4. If a party is unable to answer fully and completely any of the production requests propounded, then the party must answer said production request to the fullest extent possible and specify the reason(s) for the present inability to answer the production request.

5. These Requests require you to produce all responsive documents that are in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control.

6. If you contend that you are entitled to withhold from production any documents responsive to these Requests on the basis of attorney-client privilege, the work-product doctrine or any other ground or privilege, then please provide a description of the withheld material or information, and at a minimum, please follow the instructions prescribed in sub-parts below as to each withheld document.

- (a) Describe the nature of the document (e.g., letter or memorandum, etc.);
- (b) State the date of the document;
- (c) Identify the persons who sent and/or received the original and/or a copy of the document;
- (d) State the contents of the document; and
- (e) State the basis upon which you contend that you are entitled to withhold the document from production.

7. If any or all documents responsive to these Requests are no longer in your possession, custody or control because of destruction, loss, or any other reason, then please follow the instructions described in sub-parts (a)-(e) below as to each such document.

- (a) Describe the nature of the document (e.g., letter or memorandum, etc.);

- (b) State the date of the document;
- (c) Identify the person(s) who sent and/or received the original and/or a copy of the document;
- (d) State in detail the contents of the document; and
- (e) State the name and date of disposition of the document, what disposition was made of it, the person responsible for making the decision regarding the disposition and the person responsible for carrying out the disposition.

8. In the event that multiple copies of a document exist, produce every copy on which appear any notations or markings of any sort not appearing on another copy.

9. If you or your attorneys know of the existence, past or present, of any document described in the Request, but such document is not presently in your possession, custody or control or in the possession, custody or control of your agents, representatives, or attorneys, please state that this is the case in your response to the Request, identify such document in response to the Request, and identify the individual in whose possession, custody, or control the document was last known to reside. If such document no longer exists, state when, how, and why such document ceased to exist.

10. The documents produced in response to this Request shall be: (i) organized and designated to correspond to the categories in this Request or, if not, (ii) produced as they are maintained in the normal course of business, and in either case;

- (a) All associated file labels, file headings and file folders shall be produced together with the responsive documents from each file and each file shall be identified as to its owner or custodian;
- (b) All documents that cannot be legibly copied shall be produced in their original form; otherwise, you may produce photocopies; and
- (c) Each page shall be given a discrete production number.

11. If documents are in an electronic, magnetic or otherwise non-paper format, please provide Plaintiffs with a copy of the original. Plaintiffs reserve the right to request production and/or viewing of such documents in their original format when the copy appears altered, whether intentionally or not, or it is not able to be read in its produced form. If such a document requires the use of specific equipment or software, please state that such is the case and name the software or equipment. Plaintiffs reserve the right to request that such document(s) be read on your software or equipment if such is not readily available or accessible to Plaintiffs. Please inform Plaintiffs' counsel if you believe that there will be any questions, concerns or objections to this instruction.

12. If you object to any of the Definitions or Instructions herein, you must do so by written response hereto. If said written response to a Definition or Instruction is not made prior to your response to the discovery requested, it will be presumed that you do not object to any Definition or Instruction.

13. Unless otherwise specified in a particular Request, the time period covered by each Request runs from January 1, 1967 to the present.
